TY 2017 Reasonable Cause ExplanationName: VENICE PRIDEEIN: 81-3197298Software ID: 17005980Software Version: v1.00

Explanation: Date June 21, 2018 Internal Revenue Service P.O. Re: Charity EIN: 81-3197298 Request for Penalty Abatement - 2017 Tax Return Gentlemen: Venice Pride respectfully requests that any late filing penalties be waived regarding the filing of our organization's tax return. It was our organization's belief that the appropriate extensions had been filed and received by the IRS. Therefore, our organization believed that it was filing a timely filed tax return based on the extended due date. If the extensions were not received then it was simply due to a clerical mistake on our part and we apologize for the error. We would hope that the IRS could understand that this situation was an isolated instance and allow for a reduction or waiver of penalties on this issue. We would also ask that you consider that this organization is essentially a volunteer organization. There are no paid officers or board of directors. Therefore, any penalties assessed against Venice Pride will take funds directly away from the funds used to support the mission of the organization. You can see from the small size of Venice Pride that such a penalty would have a large impact on the ability of the organization to fund its operations. In addition, we would also request that you consider the prior filing history of the organization. The organization has a history of filing its prior tax returns on time. Therefore, we believe that this shows good evidence that Venice Pride tries to file its tax returns on time and will continue to do so. Finally, we intend to enlist the assistance of an outside accounting service this year, who will take charge of making sure that any future extensions that need to be filed are properly handled. Therefore, Venice Pride will have a system in place to make sure that any future tax returns are filed on a timely basis. Therefore, for all of the above reasons, Venice Pride respectfully requests a waiver of the penalties for this tax return. Please let me know if you have any additional questions regarding this issue. Sincerely, Grant Turk
